SANTA BARBARA, Calif., July 3.—
If Old Dame Nature thought this morning she could shake Santa Barbara's determination to rise from the ruins of destruction more beautiful than ever, she reckoned without the indefatigable fighting spirit of a city that will not be downed.

Even as the temblors that rocked the city for the greater part of the forenoon trembled the very city hall foundations, the emergency government heads were meeting with the reclamation board of engineers to complete plans for the reconstruction of the devastated area.

Quake after quake, some of considerable volume, failed to seriously interrupt the plucky men and women who are toiling ceaselessly in their "back to normal" program that has brought the admiration of the world to the mission city of the Pacific.

A few persons suffered minor injuries when bricks and loosened masonry were sent flying into the streets by the temblors, but otherwise there was no casualties of any consequence.

The first shock which was felt at 8:38 was estimated to have been nearly of the same violence as the temblor that wrecked the heart of the business district last Monday. Because of its short duration, however, little damage resulted.

Other shocks at 10:20, 10:38, 10:46
11:25 and 12:20 were of a comparatively slight nature and did not cause any great alarm.

Throughout the disturbances that swayed buildings all along the fourteen blocks in the State street business area, the girls at the telephone switchboards bravely stuck to their posts in the damaged telephone building. They placed calls to the residential districts and hospitals reporting that no damage or casualties had been suffered. After the fourth temblor a few of the girls became nervous and company officials ordered them to leave the building and drop local service until the shakes ceased.

Mr. Darrow explained that the injunction is being sought on the grounds that the Tennessee anti-evolution law is unconstitutional. If
the injunction is granted it means
Scopes will not be tried in Dayton
July 10 as scheduled and that his case will be argued before a federal judge, probably in Chicago.

Two reasons were set forth by
Mr. Darrow for the present plan of
conducting the defense:

First, counsel for the defense decided the case must be fought on constitutional grounds and that taking it directly to a federal court is
in reality a short cut.

Second, to eliminate the element
of sensationalism.

TRIAL, SERIOUS AFFAIR
The second reason, according to Mr. Darrow, is the most important.

"The public insists this trial be treated with levity," he said. "Suspicion has been cast upon Scopes and the rest of us that publicity is the prime motive. On the contrary this is a serious affair. We are go-

COOLIDGE GIVES "LIBERTY" TALK COUNTY ROLLS SHOW INCREASE

By JOHN T. LAMBERT

Universal Service Staff Correspondent
CAMBRIDGE, Mass., July 3.—Standing at the spot where General Washington 150 years ago, took command of the Revolutionary army in America's struggle for liberty, President Coolidge today solemnly warned the nations of Europe to pursue the paths of peace and to "enter into mutual covenants for their mutual security."

"If the people of the old world are mutually distrustful of each other," he declared, let them enter into mutual covenants for their mutual protection and when such covenants have been made let them be solemnly observed no matter what the sacrifice."

By no other means, he said, can peace be assured and the financial recovery of Europe encouraged. They have tried war and found it utterly wanting. People abandon hope and contemplate their own everlasting servitude when they see their productive fruits of peace ravaged by destructive war.

PEACE AND GOOD FAITH.

General Washington, he said, cherished no hatreds. He was quick to forgive his enemies. He sought peace and enforced it in good faith. Let the nations of Europe follow his example. President Coolidge insisted.
Otherwise, he indicated they cannot look to this country for continued assistance.

The United States will hold itself free from commitments where its own interests are not involved, he declared, but will give full moral support to their convants of security and they will gain for themselves
the commendation of the world.

President Coolidge delivered the address at the epochal celebration in which all New England participated.
He and Mrs. Coolidge rode in the parade of pomp and pageantry through the historic streets which Washington traversed on his memorable ride from the continental congress at Philadelphia to the Washington elm on Cambridge Common, where the general was vested with command of the untrained farmer-soldiers who for seven years battled through privation to liberty.

Hudson-Essex reports that even export markets are now ordering more coaches than open cars.

COUNTY ROLLS SHOW INCREASE

County Assessor George O. Meese announced yesterday that the assessed value of Contra Costa county is placed at $100,631,657, which is an increase of more than $2,000,000 over last year. The natural growth of the county makes the increase natural.

The assessed valuation of the city of Richmond this year is $23,553,950 an increase of $420,715 over last year, when the assessed valuation
here was $23,133,235.

The assessed valuation of El Cerrito is $1,390,310, an increase over last year when the valuation was $1,252,130.

Pineole's assessed valuation is $225,- 575. Last year it was $219,690.

The assessed valuation of Hercules is $981,290. Last year it was $1,024,940.

Other cities in the county have the following valuation.

Antioch, $1,218,400; Concord, $443,- 520; Martinez, $3,426,910; Pittsburg,
$1,976,505; Walnut Creek, $345,755.

Martinez showed the greatest increase in valuation, more than $500,- 000.

The total assessed valuation of incorporated cities, less war veterans exemptions is $33,553,900. The total valuation of outside property, less war veterans exemptions, is $55,050,- 245. The total valuations of property taxable by the county is $88,- 606,145. War veterans exemptions total $958,110, a little less than a million dollars.

Railroad properties, taxable by the state, are valued at $8,003,492, and the properties of public service corporations, also taxable by the state are valued at $3,066,910. The total valuation of all properties, less war veterans exemptions, is $99,676,547.

The assessment rolls of the city of Richmond are being completed by City Assessor J. O. Ford. It was said at his office yesterday. The city assessor fixed the valuation of Richmond property at $26,823,315, last year.

Patriotic Appeal Stirs Members of Local Rotary Club

The history of the nation and the developments that made the celebration of the Fourth of July a glorious occasion, were sketched before the Rotary club yesterday by Assistant District Attorney Hiram E. Jacobs.
Hearty applause was drawn by the stirring close of the speech, in which Jacobs appealed for a truer, better Americanism. The chairman of the day was Aubrey Wilson.

After an absence of three weeks,
President C. C. Kratzer, again occupied the chair. He told of the convention of Rotarians at Cleveland, Ohio, which he has been attending and sketched the results of this conference, and the new movements the club would inaugurate during the coming year. Visitors were present from Stockton, San Francisco, Berkeley, Astoria, Oregon, and Columbus, Ohio.

Practice of the volleyball team,
which is to play the Lions club on Friday night, was announced by J.
E. Hill, captain.

Ferries Deluged With Floods of Holiday Travel

Indicating the need of a bridge across the bay, the automobile traffic from Richmond to San Rafael last night was lined in double rows
from the ferry slip to Standard Avenue, Point Richmond, or approximately four blocks east of the Standard Oil administration building, awaiting ferry service.

The Richmond-San Rafael ferry company was doing everything in its power to hustle the waiting cars across the bay, and eliminate the congestion, but the machines were lining up as fast as they could be taken away. At the time of going to press there was every indication that the heavy traffic would continue all night, and possibly all today and tonight.

Reports coming from Rodeo indicate that the congestion on the Rodeo Vallejo ferry is as bad as at Richmond. In both places the traffic is far more than can be handled by the ferries.

San Pablo avenue yesterday afternoon and last night was also one moving mass of automobile traffic,
seeking the country for the vacation.

ON VACATION TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Yeadon, 434

part of next week for a two week

county.

Richmond Citizens Plan Sane Fourth Celebration Today

Richmond will celebrate the Fourth of July with the suspension of all public and private business today.
Point Richmond will be host to Richmond and its surrounding district at a formal celebration.

Kozy Kove, selected as the site for the festivities because of its facilities for water sports, has been dressed up in the national colors and a pit has been excavated for a free barbecue that is to be a feature of the day.

Beginning at noon and continuing
as long as the meat lasts, barbecued beef will be distributed free of charge. The program starts at 1 o'clock and continues until evening.
There will be dancing during the afternoon at the park pavilion.

Bathers must bring their own suits as none are available at the park.

Wilbur S. Pierce, attorney, will deliver the Fourth of July oration.
Judge D. J. Hall, city attorney, has also accepted an invitation to speak.
His events on the program include swimming and foot races for boys and girls, fat men's and women's races, and a pie eating contest.

The West Side Italian band will furnish music for the park program and for the dancing at Kozy Kove pavilion and the street dancing at Washington and Richmond avenues in the evening which will conclude the day's program.

Kozy Kove may be reached either by going through the highway tunnel and turning to the right or by taking the Washington avenue
hill road.

This subject will be discussed by Rev. Frank A. Woten, pastor, of the First Christian church, at the Sunday evening services tomorrow night, starting at 7:45. Rev. Woten announces that his discourse will be semi-patriotic and semi-religious, in keeping with the holiday.

Special solos will be given by Alena Gamsbury of Oakland.

Sunday morning, Rev. Woten will have charge of the Everyman's Bible class at the Richmond theatre, at which the women of the city will be guests of the men's Bible class.
Some special numbers will be arranged. The class meets at 9:45.

The first coach was built on Nov.

FOUR RICHMOND MEN INDICTED BY GRAND JURY

MARTINEZ, July 3. (Special).— With James Manis and Peter Christopoulos of Richmond, confessing alleged knowledge of a conspiracy to commit perjury in the divorce trial of Mrs. Julia Manis against Angelo Manis, the Contra Costa
grand jury yesterday voted indictments against the Manis brothers, Christopoulos and Gus Christikos, charging them with criminal conspiracy.

Angelo Manis, Christikos and Christopoulos are already held in jail and James Manis will be arrested this afternoon. According to District Attorney A. B. Tinning charges of subornation of perjury preferred against Angelo Manis and Gus Christikos will be dismissed and they will be tried on the new indictments. Christopoulos who is said to have confessed that he falsely testified to having had illicit relations with Mrs. Manis, is facing a perjury charge in addition to the new indictment.

Trial of Christikos and Manis on the old indictment was scheduled to start July 7, but it was believed today that a postponement would be ordered.

The authorities charge that at Manis' instance Christopoulos testified falsely in the divorce action, instituted by Mrs. Manis. Considerable property, claimed by Mrs. Manis to be her separate property and by Manis to be community property, was involved. The court awarded the property to Mrs. Manis and also granted her the divorce.

The indictments against the four men charged that the conspiracy complained of occurred on January 17, 1924.

SCOPES TRIAL SERIOUS EVENT SAYS ATTORNEY

Universal Service Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, July 3.—Dayton's elaborate preparations for staging the greatest legal battle since the trial of Socrates, may come in for keen disappointment if the plans for the defense in the Scopes evolution case, announced by Clarence Darrow today, become effective.

Mr. Darrow, just back from New York where he held an emergency conference with Dudley Field Malone, Bainbridge Colby and John Randolph Neal, announced definitely that the Scopes case would be taken into federal court by counsel for the defense. He stated that Dr. Neal is already on his way to Tennessee with an application for injunction restraining the state courts from hearing the case.

Mr. Darrow explained that the injunction is being sought on the
grounds that the Tennessee anti-
evolution law is unconstitutional. If
the injunction is granted it means
Scopes will not be tried in Dayton
July 10 as scheduled and that his
case will be argued before a federal
judge, probably in Chicago.

Two reasons were set forth by
Mr. Darrow for the present plan of
conducting the defense:

First, counsel for the defense decided the case must be fought on
constitutional grounds and that taking it directly to a federal court is
in reality a short cut.

Second, to eliminate the element
of sensationalism.

THE RIGHT TO IMMIGRATE

Is the "right to immigrate" a human right which governments some day will have to recognize generally? Or have nations always the right to say who shall not come within their territories and be given citizenship?

This seems to be a question which is destined to receive world-wide attention and discussion before long. Old World countries which greatly needed an outlet for their surplus population are becoming more and more interested in unrestricted migration. The Geneva protocol, now apparently unsuccessful, raised this question, indirectly challenging the right of sovereign nations to regulate their immigration for their own safety and interest without foreign interference.

On the other hand, a proposed American international code recently made public by the Pan-American Union, compiled by an international commission of jurists, carries this suggestion:

"Every republic may determine, taking into consideration its ideal conditions, what persons or class of persons it shall permit to enter its territory and to whom it may eventually and at its discretion concede nationality."

Canada, which already regulates its immigration with apparently greater success than the United States, believes that this suggestion should be endorsed emphatically by all the American countries. Nearly all Americans except the newest arrivals take the same view. The problem challenges thought and discussion in this country as much as anywhere else on the globe.

EDUCATION THE SAFEGUARD

A description of the many varieties and enormous quantities of educational and fire prevention literature distributed during 1924 formed the bulk of the report of the committee on public relations of the National Board of Fire Underwriters submitted by Chairman Seldon Catlin, vice president of the Insurance Company of North America. About 1,600,000 separate pieces of printed matter were distributed during the year, not including fire prevention films and other prepared material for specific occasions. In summing up the committee's work, Mr. Catlin said:

"We are impressed with the importance of having fire insurance thoroughly understood, and believe this Board is the logical organization to undertake a more extensive campaign, one that will clarify any misunderstandings, explain methods. Most of our fire insurance worries are the product of human action based upon misunderstanding, when not prompted by unreasoning antagonism, and we must therefore bring about the correction of such unfavorable factors by attention to the human equation. Education will not only knowledge of the economics of the business, the absence of which now adversely affects fire insurance, but it will also disarm the force of attack."

As has been truly said, fire insurance is the backbone of business and the stabilizer of all commercial credit. It is conducted honestly and economically and deserves fair and reasonable consideration.

BACK MINING TO THE LIMIT

That mining is not now looked upon as a hazardous and non-creative investment is evidenced by the efforts of bankers and others to get into the game, although these fellows are not willing to take over non-developed properties. Investments in the large copper by bankers is as common as investment in tax free securities, and these men have been fortunate in getting in in the early day period of the company's existence. Mining is just as legitimate as any other industry, and in fact the profits are so great that it overshadows every other. The United States has been bolstered into its present enviable position, not by the growing of grains, the ranging of millions of cattle and sheep on the public lands, or the timber industry, but through its output of minerals. The world needs in its utilities iron and its products, copper, lead, zinc and the money needs the gold, silver and nickel of our mines, without them this country would be a "dud" and nothing that could be done would arouse it from lethargy. England is making every effort to secure enough gold and silver production to maintain her position in the financial marts of the world, which position has been slipping from her since the great war, and if the Americans do not start something toward furthering development of the mines of this country we may find ourselves again in second place.

Colorado has taken the position that the state may well aid in research work and the furthering of prospecting and then the development of the mines that the prospector finds, every dollar invested coming back to the business interests of that state a thousand fold.

Potash has been found in Texas.

Europe has used gas since 1810.

Five Lace Collars Drooping Slightly At the Shoulders Are Used On Black Taffeta Frocks. BLACK taffeta trimmed with rather heavy white or ecru lace—it doesn't look so very summery, but it is a combination that has been used in the making of some very smart little dinner and afternoon frocks lately. The little frock of this description shown in the sketch has very little about it that might be called mid-Victorian, but it lends itself extremely well to the charm of those mid-Victorian gold chains and lockets and bracelets which have quite recently been revived by many well-dressed women. In this frock the only thing that might remotely be considered of that period is the was soft and pliant and as black as ebony. An inferior grade of black taffeta has a lecherous way of looking pleasantly greenish or purplish or rusty brown, like the plumage of a starling in winter. There is something really gorgeous about the blackness of good quality black taffeta.

Here is a really excellent opportunity to make use of those pieces of lace that you have been treasuring, sometimes doubting whether there would ever be a turn of fashion to give you a chance to use them to advantage. Recently there have been so few chances to use prized pieces of lace.

A frock of the sort shown in the sketch may quite properly be used either for afternoon or evening.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

By MARY MARSHALL

THE MAN THAT MARRIES YOU

SINCE Adam dove and Eve span, young girls have been keenly anxious to know something of the men they would some day call their husbands. The thoroughly up-to-date girl perhaps can decide that question a little more for herself than could girls of other generations. She may decide, for instance, that she will marry a doctor, and at least according to modern novels and short stories she will then quite properly go about it to snare her young M. D.—even if she has to study nursing to do it.

But there still is many a girl who is as passive in this matter of finding a husband as girls used to be. She wonders and wonders what her true knight is going to do for a living, whether he is going to be dark or light, tall or short, blunt or courtly. So it is small wonder that the quaint old devices for determining these things still persist.

Most famous of all is the method of the daisy petals. You count them off one by one, saying as you do so, "Rich man, poor man, beggar-man, thief, doctor, lawyer, already discovered the identity of your beloved you count the petals off, saying: "He loves me, he loves merchant, chief." Or if you have me not, to desperation, a little, not at all."

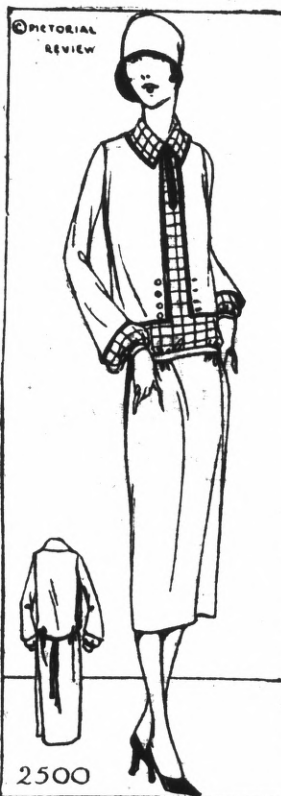

There is another saying that when you wake or your birthday the first man's name that comes into your head will be the one belonging to your future husband. You may if you like name the four posts of your bed after four men friends of yours, and the one on which your eyes fall first in the morning will be your husband.

Now is a good time to count cherry stones. After you have eaten the cherries on your plate save the stones and count them. Count them thus: "This year, next year, sometime, never—" etc., until you have counted all the stones. This shows when you will be married. If you wish to determine your future husband's profession use this count: "Army, navy, business, divinity, law." The original rhyme had "peacery" for business. American girls ought not to bother their pretty shingled heads with thoughts of foreign noblemen.

THE BOLERO IDEA STRESSED

In the effort to achieve variety for ensemble effects, fashion has revived the bolero, which is the smartest possible abbreviation of a coat. This daytime frock in kasha cloth is trimmed with check silk and the bolero is bound with silk braid. The back is in straight effect. If preferred the bolero fronts may be omitted, leaving a perfectly straight frock. Medium size requires 1 1/2 yard 54-inch kasha cloth with 1 yard 36-inch silk for trimming.

American Legion
Ball Adds Funds
To Benefit Quota

The Richmond Post of the American Legion realized a good sum for the benefit of the Endowment fund by the dance given in the Veterans Memorial Hall ballroom last night. The $2000 quota of Richmond Post is to be raised by a series of entertainments, and the committee, headed by R. Crose, feels that little difficulty will be encountered if the success of last night's event can be taken as a standard.

Bernard Weisgerber's jazz orchestra struck up the first strains of the most popular dance music at 9 o'clock for the benefit of a hall comfortably filled with merry-makers. A five-pound box of candy, donated by Harold Purviance of the Den O'Sweets, was given as a doorprize, and another five-pound box, donated by Tony Papadakis of the Marathon, went to the winner in the elimination waltz.

The Life Saver company had large quantities of these little tasties on hand which they distributed free of charge. Serpentine was there in abundance, and everyone enjoyed the tag that ensued.

Orinda News Items

A delightful shower was tendered Saturday evening June 27th, to Miss Dorothy Nelson, of Oakland, whose marriage to Fred Brownell, also of Oakland, will take place in the early fall. The affair was sponsored by Mrs. Dr. Compton and Mrs. E. McCue, sisters of Mrs. Brownell, and Mrs. E. P. Tenney, at the country home of the latter at Lake Orinda. Dancing, music and games formed the enjoyable diversion of the evening. The esteem in which Miss Nelson is held was evinced by the many choice gifts received. Both young people are connected with the East Bay Water Company.

Mrs. Timothy Kendall was entertained by friends at the St. Marks Hotel last Saturday evening and attended the opera, "Prince of Pilsen" at the Oakland Auditorium. This was the opening night of a series of twelve operas to be presented by Paul Steindorff. Oakland is coming to the front in the musical world as well as San Francisco. Orinda was well represented at the opening performance, and enjoyed seeing Mr. Steindorff presented with a big birthday cake as a token from his hundreds of admirers. Miss Lilian Glaser the leading lady was submerged with flowers, as she is a great favorite in light opera.

Mrs. Jennie Northrup, of Berkeley, will spend the next week visiting Mrs. W. T. Wheeler, of Orinda Park. This pleasing lady is well-known in Orinda and her old friends will be glad to see her again. E. W. Jensen has left for a vacation trip through the northwest.

Monday, July 6th the Orinda Improvement Club meets at the Auditorium. Please attend, as it will probably be the last meeting until vacation time is over.

The regular monthly dance under the auspices of the P. T. A. of Orinda, will be held in the Orinda Auditorium, Saturday, July 24th. All welcome.

P. L. Tate leaves Monday on a business trip to Universal City, going by steamer to Los Angeles.

Mrs. W. T. Wheeler is busy rehearsing again with the San Francisco Municipal Chorus for the Diamond Jubilee on September 11th.

On Friday, July 10th, Mrs. Mary Ferriter, the well known lecturer and child welfare worker, of Berkeley, will deliver a talk over K. G. O. Radio Broadcast Station, under the auspices of the Orinda Union Parent Teacher Association. Her subject will be "Child Welfare." Tune in for K. G. O. at 3:30 in the afternoon and hear an interesting talk, as this is the first time for Orinda to be "On the air."

Thursday, June 26th, Mrs. Frank dinner and in the evening a whist party was enjoyed. Mrs. Theodore Vintner won first honors.

Last Wednesday Mr. Carlsen had his foot badly injured while at work and had to be treated at hospital. He returned home Friday.

Mrs. H. T. Flecken entertained the Orinda school children at the lake on June 20th. This enjoyable time was great for the children and appreciated by the parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell have moved into their home in Orinda.

Willis West Revue Sunday Attraction At The California

For Sunday program of varieties at the California theatre, The Willis West Revue in an entirely new production, and three worth while acts will be the attraction, whilst a picture replete with thrills, and several comedy reels make up a great triple bill.

A tabloid edition of a well known farce comedy will introduce Willis West and his players in a new setting. The story of the play is that of a young man staging an elopement with a millionaires daughter thus outwitting the father in a business deal. There is much to laugh at and the situations are natural and humorous.

Betty Covey of the popular Covey Sisters, late of the Orpheum Circuit, is a new member of the company and this clever young dancer interprets a snappy parisian dance specialty and is also seen to advantage in several song and dance numbers.

"Sweet Georgia Brown," "That's My Boy," "Swanee Butterfly" are among the popular hits, but the outstanding song success is "Here Comes The Bride," an effective song scene prettily costumed and haunting in its melody.

Rudy Zeigler, Don Smith, the Misses Fontella, Hammond and Covey with the irresistible West, himself, and the Dainty Sunkist chorus are all seen to advantage in the new show.

Tex Martin a clever Monologist and expert with the lariat, is sure to be a favorite as his work is clean cut and entertaining.

"Bright Breezes From Musical Comedy" are presented by Sherlock and Clinton, a likeable young couple with pep and personality and some character songs and dances that are sure to please.

"Fun ala Carte" with Lewis and Lavar as the principals is a riot of laughter with smart repartee and humor that is infectious.

GRACE LUTHERAN CHURCH

Redmen's hall, Eleventh street and Nevil avenue.

S. T. Himes, Ph. D. pastor. Residence 513 Ripley avenue.

E. J. Evans, superintendent of the Sunday school.

Sunday school begins at 10 o'clock, subject of lesson, "The Beginning of Foreign Missions." Golden Text, "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature." Mark 16:15.

At the 11 o'clock service the sermon by the pastor will be on the subject of "The Glorious Liberty." Come and enjoy a welcome place in our services.

San Andreas—Huge plant of Calaveras Cement Company under construction.

"Breaking Point" At The Richmond

Herbert Brenon's "The Breaking Point" is another splendid action-romance by the man who made "The Spanish Dancer," Nita Naldi, Patsy Ruth Miller, George Fawcett and Matt Moore are featured in the production, which opened at the Richmond theatre yesterday.

It's an entertaining combination of society love drama and murder mystery, with a dash of the scientific angle that made "Black Oxen."

Nita Naldi plays the same kind of a vampirish role she had in "The Ten Commandments." Matt Moore is the hero. Miss Miller is cast as Elizabeth Wheeler, Moore's sweetheart and George Fawcett is a kindly old doctor. Some cast.

"The Breaking Point" was extremely popular as both a book and play by Mary Roberts Rinehart, but if its reception last night at the Richmond theatre is to be taken as an example the picture is in for an unusually successful run. There never was a better piece of screen material written, and Julie Herne and Edna Bingham have done wonders with the adaptation. There are scenes the author never even thought of that go a long way to make "The Breaking Point" not only one of the most gripping, but also one of the most entertaining productions we have seen in many months.

Naturally, it's a Paramount.

Other features on the same program include the last thrilling chapter of "Haunted Valley," featuring Ruth Roland; "Felix the Goat Gutter," a Felix, the cat comedy.

Try Record-Herald Want Ads

"The White Sheep" Hal Roach Comedy At The California

Hal Roach's comedians headed by Glenn Tyron and Blanche Mehaffey will have the job of tickling the ribs of California theatre goers Sunday as the principals of the screen feature of the big triple bill.

These fun-makers are seen in Roach's new novelty creation, "The White Sheep," a Pathe picture.

The story is an original type of entertainment combining farce comedy, melodrama and thrilling action. Several humorous characters are seen in the story which tells of the adventures of a timid young brother in a family of rough and ready fighters. He is the White Sheep in the flock of black ones. A pretty girl comes to town and immediately there is a three-sided courtship and rivalry among them.

Some sensational and spectacular scenes climax the story in which the White Sheep, growing bold, proves to be the hardest hiter of them all. Tyron, who is being starred by Hal Roach in a series of feature pictures, gives to his part a freshness and appeal that promises to rapidly establish him as one of the screen's leading fun-makers.

Other features on the same program include "Never Fear," a roaring comedy; "Kinograms"; Carl Richard's California Orchestra; Larry Caneio at the organ.

That Feeling of FREEDOM!

Freedom meant more to our forefathers than life itself. They sought it. They fought for it. And they died for it. That they, fortunately for us, attained it—accounts for our annual celebration of Independence Day! Yet many there are who, in their older days, wish they had "fought" for Financial Independence in the days they were young. That they had attained that feeling of complete Freedom that comes with knowing that one does not have to worry about the to-morrow. That feeling that makes for contentedness in mind and happiness at heart.

Save! Save while you're young so that when the time comes and you feel you have earned a rest, you can stretch out your arms and shout to the world—"Free! Free, am I, from every kind of worry!"

How To Be Healthy

By JOHN W. DEEMING

Here is another of the Record Herald's series of articles on health. Any questions will be answered by the author upon address to Box 5, care of this paper. Back numbers of this series may be had on request.

ABDOMINAL WEAKNESS

Questions and Answers

Dear Mr. Deeming:
I have suffered for years from abdominal weakness. It used to be that I was an expert tennis player and all-round athlete. Now, as a result of motherhood, I find that I am unable to be the pal that I used to be to my husband. Can exercise correct this weakness? If so, please tell me what exercises to take.
An inquiring mother.

Answer:
I am glad inquiring mother that you sent in the above question. There are hundreds of mothers who are in the same condition as you are. Are you sure there are no displacements in the abdominal cavity. If not, exercise will soon strengthen the stomach muscles. Exercises 6 and 7 of the series that have just appeared in this column are good, also, lying on back with hands under hips make as big a circle as you can with legs, (keeping them straight). First to the left a number of times, then to the right a number of times. Do the exercises until you are slightly fatigued, both morning and evening and in a few weeks you will be surprised at the improvement that has taken place.

THANKS.

Dear Mr. Deeming:
I am an ardent follower of the physical culture idea. I have studied MacPadden from cover to cover as well as many other authorities. Allow me to say that your course of physical development is the best that I have come across in many years. It lays necessary stress upon that most important of all factors the right mental attitude. You are certainly to be congratulated on devoting your valuable time and thought to the service of those in Richmond who have need of your advice.

Proposed Parade Of Klansmen Stirs National Furore

By JOHN T. LAMBERT
(By Universal Service)

SWAMP SCOTT, Mass., July 3.—Protests that may gain nationwide momentum were today pouring in upon President Coolidge against the Ku Klux Klan parade and demonstration to be held in Washington on August 8th.

The Klansmen announced that 250,000 of the hooded brothers will parade through Pennsylvania avenue, past the capitol, then to the White House. The parade permit has been granted by the city of Washington officials, the klansmen will ride unmasked, by city order. Their horses will be hooded.

The protests are contained in the letters which have poured into the White House and are now coming in steady stream to the summer white house from all parts of the country. President Coolidge is urged in them to decline to review the parade. He is urged not only to decline, but in his reply to make a seathing denunciation of the Klan. A third group of demonstrators urge him to withdraw the parade permit, "in order that this un-American spectacle may not be witnessed upon the streets of the nation's capital."

Some of the protests have come from Jewish societies. Others have been from associations of negroes. The bitterest denunciations have been made by members of an organization known as the Protestant Knights of America. But the steady volume of protests have been written by individual citizens.

The elaborate publicity organization of the Klan announced from Washington that the President had been invited to review the parade, and suggested that he would accept in view of the fact that he had addressed the Holy Name society during its recent assembly there—it was stated officially here today that no such invitation has been received. President Coolidge will be here in August.

That the President will neither return to Washington for the parade nor take any step to stop it is regarded as certain.

BABY BOY ARRIVES

A baby son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snider, 622 1-2 Seventh street, on June 23, according to certificate filed with the City Health department yesterday.

help you, but could not give you the exercises that you need through this column as there is too much detail work that you would need. You need personal supervision and if you will come around to the Y. M. C. A. and see me I will be glad to help you.

One Man Car to Meet Opposition

Due to the limited patronage on the Sixth street line, the Key System Transit company has decided to operate a one-man car on that street, C. F. Donnelly, superintendent, announced yesterday. The action will be opposed by the people who ride on the car, according to rumors, as it is said two men are needed on account of the dangerous Santa Fe crossing below Chanslor avenue.

The matter will be placed before the Kiwanis club at the next meeting, by George Lee, chairman of the public affairs committee of the Kiwanians. The crossing danger will not be increased, as the motorman will be obliged to act as a flagman. Superintendent Donnelly said.

Richmond Company To Start Two New Homes Monday

The Richmond Company will start two seven room homes on Rheem avenue between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-sixth streets on Monday.

One on the north side will be of Spanish architecture, designed by Ernest Floore of Richmond.

One on the south side will be old English on a wide lot. This house is already sold.

Both plans are exceptionally beautiful and like the completed Spanish group on Twenty-fourth street represent an imposing improvement in the Rheem avenue district.

City May Buy Kozy Kove Park

Petitions, which have been circulated during the past week, favoring the city's purchase of Kozy Kove as a municipal resort and picnic grounds, will probably be submitted to the city council on Monday night, by the West Side Progressive association. Members of the association declare that the spot would make an ideal picnic ground for both residents and outsiders, situated as it is on the water's edge of the West Side. It has a wall to keep the tide from coming onto the grounds, wooded spots, a dancing pavilion, sandy beach and bathing advantages, the petitions state.

ARMY DRIVE PROGRESSES

Centering in industrial plants at the present time, the Salvation Army drive for $3800 is progressing nicely. Captain Gieb Post, supervisor of the campaign, announced. Material aid in putting the drive over is being given by the West Side Progressive association and various other clubs and organizations of the city.

Soviets Charge British Cabinet Is Brewing War

(By Universal Service)

LONDON, July 3.—Soviet Foreign Minister Tchitcherin's statement in Moscow that the British Conservative cabinet is heading toward war with Russia, is prominently displayed by the newspapers here.

Premier Baldwin has been keeping the closest kind of a watch on alleged propaganda activities of soviet agents against British interests in various parts of the globe. A majority of his cabinet, headed by Lord Birkenhead, are desirous of immediately cancelling the remaining diplomatic privileges accorded to soviet representatives in London on account of the Bolshevik anti-British activities in China, India, Persia and elsewhere.

Nothing in the way of military action such as Tchitcherin predicts has been contemplated even by the most rabid anti-soviet minister in the British cabinet.

Foreign Secretary Austen Chamberlain opposes any such steps and will continue to fight it unless other powers are prepared to take similar action.

The matter was raised in the House of Commons today when the foreign secretary was called upon to say whether Lord Birkenhead's statement that the government intends to put an end to Bolshevik intrigues against British in China and elsewhere was made with authority from the cabinet.

Chamberlain replied that Lord Birkenhead was correct. The foreign secretary repeated his statement that the present disorders in China are due to soviet influence.

Scopes Trial

ing to show that we do not need theatricals to prove our point." Mr. Darrow pointed out that the public is not aware of the far reaching significance of this case. He continued:

"The freakishness of the Tennessee law and the campaign for its enactment caused a general feeling that the case was absurd.

"Three states already have passed laws have been beaten by the narrowest majorities. In some twenty other states bills have been introduced and a well organized body of propagandists bigoted by using every means to make it unlawful to teach evolution. If successful it follows other sciences will be attacked in turn. If we value education and the unhampered quest for truth, then nothing can be more important than this case.

"It must be remembered that the enemies of evolution are sincere. They believe that evolution threatens the souls of men, and they are determined to end its teaching. It is suicidal for those who believe in the freedom of education to sit idly by and treat the matter with levity and indifference."

Local Girls Will Appear on Stage

Starting today, the patrons of the Granada theatre in San Francisco will have an opportunity to see Baby Healey and Baby McNeill, two Richmond tots of exceptional dancing talent, demonstrate their ability for one week. Solo parts and several dances will be given by the two little girls in company with another dancer.

Woman Is Guilty Of Booze Charge

On Monday Police Judge C. A. Odell will sentence Mrs. Theresa Brignone, proprietress of the National hotel, 443 Standard avenue, who pleaded guilty yesterday to violating the Wright act.

A raid was made on the National this week by police, and Joe Robbiano was arrested and a quantity of liquor seized, but when it was shown that Robbiano was not in possession of the liquor, the case against him was dismissed. A warrant was thereupon issued for the arrest of Mrs. Brignone.

other bell tower was razed and the few remaining ecclesiastical window panes were shattered and ancient relics broken.

Shortly after the first of the shakes were felt, firemen were called to various parts of the residential district, to check small blazes.

The C. K. Billings building in Montecito suffered the greatest individual damage this morning, the entire northeast corner of the structure.

Along State street virtually all of the buildings previously damaged again were affected by the tremors. The city hall and post office heretofore unscathed, were cracked and splintered to some extent. St. Anthony's college lost another portion of its damaged walls and the El Nido hotel at State and Cabrillo streets appeared likely to collapse with every tremor.

Marine guards remained at their posts in State street despite the flying debris and led women and children who were shopping in the stores to zones of safety. At the time of the early tremors, the shops and places of business were filled with patrons and workers who fled into the streets at the first warning.

In addition to the damage in the city, it was reported by navy officers that a portion of the cliff where the Santa Barbara lighthouse lays in ruins had slid into the ocean.

The weather continued fair and warm and plans for a gala July Fourth celebration tomorrow were planned.

The first enclosed car ever to sell at an open car price was the Hudson coach in the middle of 1923.

Hudson-Essex coaches now sell for less than open cars.

DUEL WITH AUTOMOBILES

(By Universal Service)

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., July 3.—Mark Twain when challenged for a duel in France chose as weapons brick-bats at three-quarters of a mile, but it remained for two belligerent young men here to fight each other with automobiles. Stewart Holmes and Rodney James, had come to fistfights the other morning and James had the best of it in this contest.

The victory however was not complete enough for James and Holmes yearned for revenge. Soon afterward they met each other, both driving an automobile. Each headed directly for the other's machine and they crashed together.

Reversing, they backed away a short distance and again they came at each other. This was repeated until both cars were practically demolished. Then both youngsters leaped from their autos and hurried away—in different directions.

BUILDING GAIN IS 11 PERCENT OVER YEAR AGO

During the first six months of 1925, a total of 294 new buildings were started in Richmond, according to a report on applications for new water services made public by the East Bay Water Company yesterday.

Estimates of building are based on the total number of applications for services as water company officials point out that water must be on the ground before the foundation can be laid.

Figures for the first six months of the year show a gain of 11 per cent over the same period a year ago, the report indicates. June was the heaviest building month of the year so far, showing 70 new structures, which is double the number of buildings started during the same month a year ago. The best month for 1923 previous to June was March a total of 58.

Richmond drew new people from the states of Washington and Utah, from Germany and from Riverside, Merced, Hayward, Oakland, Sacramento, Redding and Crockett.

Postal Increase Here 15 Percent

An increase of fifteen per cent was shown in the Richmond Post Office during the last fiscal year, over the fiscal year of 1924. Postmaster J. N. Long stated yesterday. Long said that the increase does not include money orders, but is based on the revenues of the postal business.

As the requisition of the new year has not yet been prepared, Long could not state whether or not there is to be any immediate increase in the post office personnel.

Attorney Removes To San Francisco

The De Young building on Kearney and Market street, San Francisco, will in the future be the location of the offices of W. T. Kearney, attorney who has occupied the offices in the Mercantile Trust building. Kearney is one of the counsels in the controversy between the management of the Curran theatre and Edith Ransome, one of the leading players in "White Cargo," over an alleged cancelling of a contract.

Car Needed More Than Spare Room Dealer Declares

"The art of hospitality in 1925 counts an automobile as indispensable," says J. P. Strom, the well known automobile dealer.
"The man who can't take his guests for a ride, or show visiting friends or relatives the places of interest within a few hundred miles, simply can't start to show them a good time."

"The automobile has increased the pleasure of a visit at least a thousand per cent."

"In the car folks can visit and at the same time go somewhere and do something interesting."

"Any man with only a furnished room and a good car can show his guests more real hospitality than the man with a ten room house and no automobile."

EAST BAY SAFETY COUNCIL GIVES "MOTOR DON'TS"

A mechanically perfect car is only a safe vehicle when operated by a driver who has some idea of care, according to the Eastbay Safety Council, which yesterday issued a series of "Don'ts" for motorists. The Safety Council pointed out that speeding and reckless driving are not demonstrations of skill, but are proof of the wrong state of the mind of the man or woman behind the wheel.

The Eastbay Safety Council will cooperate with the National Safety Council in a strenuous drive against the death-dealing autoist during the remainder of 1925, it was announced. The Safety Council summed up the rules for safe driving as follows:

"A moment or two saved today by reckless speeding is not efficiency for speeding tomorrow may result in a smash that will lay up the car for several days and you for several months. Hurrying to get ahead of a train, a street car or another vehicle saves only a moment or two at the ultimate destination and the gain is not worth the price; there is too much danger of accident."

"The best drivers are especially careful at dusk or twilight. There is then neither enough daylight nor sufficient artificial light to make objects distinguishable at ordinary distances."

"Slow up for all turns in the road. Blind corners are dangerous. 'Don't zig-zag from one side of the street to the other."

"Use chains whenever there is danger of skidding. Install chains on both rear wheels or none at all. Only one chain is sometimes worse than none. Chains on all four wheels help the steering wheel of the car, especially if it is a four-wheeled drive car."

"Hitting ruts at two high speed may cause the driver to lose control of his car."

"Drive slowly at bridges and at culverts. A bad rut or a stone in the road may through your car into the structure."

"When attempting to pass another vehicle going in the same direction start turning out (to the left) at least 75 feet to the rear. If you get too close your view of the road ahead is obstructed and you may turn directly in front of another car coming toward you. When you have passed a car do not cut back into the road or slow down too soon."

"Always be careful when backing. Sound horn; signal other cars, and look back (not ahead) to see where you are going. Mirrors are valuable at all times. Bumpers also have a safety feature not to be overlooked."

"Clean windshields give you a clear view ahead. Every car should have a secondary windshield (rain visor) or windshield wiper which will prevent rain from obstructing the driver's view."

"When driving, do not attempt to carry on a conversation with others in the car. Small children should preferably sit in the rear of the car; they should never be held in or between the arms of the driver. Safe driving demands your full and undivided attention."

"Be sure and signal when driving toward or away from the curb."

"The traffic officer has a difficult job at the best and drivers should make every effort to assist him. He is responsible for all accidents which happen at his station. Let us treat him as we expect him to treat us."

"The Eastbay Safety Council calls on both automobile drivers and pedestrians to assist community safety councils, automobile clubs and all other groups of citizens in their efforts to reduce the ever increasing annual automobile accident death toll."

Probably 1924's big motor car change was in balloon tires. In 1925 the big move will be toward enclosed cars at moderate prices.

Sixty per cent of all automobiles in 1925 will be enclosed and will sell at a list price of less than $1,000.

FOURTH OF JULY

Not alone is the Fourth an occasion when the youngsters burst out with their noise and smoke. It is an occasion of sober reflection on the part of thoughtful men and women. Use this holiday as a moral lesson and as a source of inspiration on the matter of the integrity and permanence of the nation. Let it inspire you to become a better American.
